School Uniform

The uniform has been agreed by students, parents and the school and promotes equality, neatness and a sense of belonging.

Boys: Navy trousers, blue & white striped shirt, denim blue V neck jumper with school crest, black shoes (school blazer and jacket are optional)

Girls: Navy trousers/ skirt, blue & white striped shirt, denim blue V neck jumper with school crest, black shoes (school blazer and jacket are optional)

White collarless T-shirt/vest can be worn underneath shirt as long as it is tucked inside trouser/skirt

School Crest

This mission statement is encapsulated in our motto, 'Ní neart go cur le chéile', which appears on the crest

The Mission Statement is given visual expression through the four symbols on our school crest.

The four symbols are:

- The Celtic Cross represents the religious ethos of the school

- The Ship at Sea recalls the many links the community of the catchment area has with the sea

- Boy and Girl Silhouette proclaims that the school is co-educational
